

Here's how it works:

Purchase a $20 ticket and bring a bottle of wine costing $15 or more to the event.

Bring a bottle of Wine

Come to the MP event where we'll randomly remove people from the island until there is only one survivor left.
The final survivor takes home all the wine!

You can increase your chances of taking home some wine by forming an alliance!

Form an Alliance

As long as one person in your alliance is the final survivor, your alliance splits the bottles of wine to take home (you figure it out if it's not an even split!).

To form an alliance, come up with an alliance name and have everyone in the alliance use the same alliance name when registering with an additional $5

You can purchase as many tickets as you'd like - each gives you another entry. You may also join multiple alliances although each ticket can only be tied to one alliance.

Be the Wine Survivor

The night of the event, we'll be kicking people off the island at 8:10, 8:25, 8:40 and announcing the FINAL SURVIVOR at 8:45pm. You must be there to win and take home your wine!
